

I can't tell you how appalled we are by Sinclair's decision to show Stolen Honor, a biased piece of political propaganda, just before the election. Where is the fairness and balance demanded by your agency for those who benefit from the use of our public airways? Now I understand fully why so many are outraged by the consolidation of media outlets into the hands of the few. Please protect our American way of life, justice and fairness.

Thank you.